Holmes, a charismatic and cunning conman, and serial killer, established his infamous "Murder Castle," a sinister building designed explicitly for his murderous pursuits.

Structure of the Book

Larson's narrative is divided into two intertwined threads: - The story of the exposition, focusing on its planning and construction, highlighting figures like architect Daniel Burnham and engineer Frederick Pabst. - The story of H.H. Holmes, exploring his life, crimes, and the mechanisms he used to lure and kill his victims. Larson employs meticulous research, blending factual accounts with vivid storytelling, creating a compelling tapestry that captures the grandeur of the fair and the horror of Holmes's deeds.

4. The introduction of electricity and new transportation systems

This event marked the first time many technological innovations, such as the Ferris wheel, were showcased to the public.

His modus operandi involved gaining their trust and then eliminating them for financial gain or sadistic pleasure.

Crimes and Capture

Holmes's crimes spanned several years, and his death toll remains uncertain, with estimates ranging from 20 to over 200 victims.
