The Church as a Spiritual Authority

The Spiritual Foundation

At the core of the church's power was its role as the ultimate spiritual authority. It was seen as the mediator between God and mankind, responsible for guiding souls towards salvation. This spiritual authority was rooted in doctrines that emphasized the church's divine right to interpret scriptures and administer sacraments.

The Power of Excommunication and Interdict Two formidable tools reinforced spiritual authority: - Excommunication: Banned individuals from participating in church sacraments, effectively cutting them off from salvation. - Interdict: Broader sanctions that could deny entire regions or kingdoms access to sacraments, often used as leverage over rulers. These mechanisms held the power to influence political decisions, as rulers sought to maintain favor with the church to avoid such spiritual punishments.
