The protagonist, an unnamed American soldier recovering from injuries sustained in the war, interacts with an Italian doctor and fellow patients. The narrative is sparse but loaded with emotional undercurrents, capturing the quiet despair and tentative hope of those affected by war. The story's brevity belies its depth, requiring attentive reading to appreciate the subtle nuances Hemingway employs.

Plot Summary

The story revolves around the protagonist's experience in a hospital where injured soldiers undergo physical therapy using machines. The main plot centers on his interactions with an Italian doctor, who appears stoic yet empathetic. The doctor demonstrates his own resilience, and the protagonist reflects on his injuries and the ongoing war. The climax involves the announcement of the winner of a bicycle race, which the soldiers watch on the radio. The story concludes with a sense of resignation and the realization of the soldiers' shared suffering and hope for recovery, despite the persistent scars of war.
